NATIONAL POLL RANKINGS

DICKINSON SYSTEM
(1924-40)

The Dickinson System was a mathematical point system devised by Frank G. Dickinson, a professor of economics at Illinois. The annual Dickinson point system devised by Frank G. Dickinson and the basis for awarding the Rissman National Trophy were emblematic of the national championship. Memorial Trophy, Notre Dame gained permanent possession of the Rissman Trophy (named for Jack F. Rissman, a Chicago clothing manufacturer) after its third victory in 1930. Minnesota retired the Rockne Trophy (named in honor of the famous Notre Dame coach) after winning it for a third time in 1940.

Subsequently, the Associated Press annual national champions were awarded the Williams Trophy and the Reverend J. Hugh O'Donnell Trophy. In 1947, Notre Dame retired the Williams Trophy (named after Dr. Henry L. Williams, Minnesota coach, and sponsored by the M Club of Minnesota). In 1954, Oklahoma retired the O'Donnell Trophy (named for Notre Dame's president and sponsored by Notre Dame alumni). Beginning with the 1957 season, the award was known as the AP Trophy and since 1980 the award has been known as the Paul "Bear" Bryant Trophy.

ATHLETIC FOUNDATION
(1883-1982)

Originally in the name of the Helms Athletic Foundation (1936-69), the foundation was established by its founding sponsor, Paul H. Helms, Los Angeles sportsman and philanthropist. After Helms' death in 1957, United Savings & Loan Association became its benefactor during 1970-72. A merger of United Savings and Citizens Savings was completed in 1973 and the Athletic Foundation became known as Citizens Savings Athletic Foundation. In 1982, The First Interstate Bank assumed sponsorship for its final rankings.

In 1941, Bill Schroeder, Managing Director of Helms Athletic Foundation, retroactively selected the national football champions for the period beginning in 1883 (the first year of a scoring system) through 1941. Thereafter, Schroeder, who passed away in 1988, then chose, with the assistance of a Hall Board, the annual national champion after the bowl games.
